Beimaan Love (transl. Dishonest Love) is a 2016 Indian Hindi-language thriller film directed and produced by Rajeev Chaudhari. It stars Sunny Leone and Rajneesh Duggal and marks the acting debut of Daniel Weber and Ziesha Nancy.[2] The film was released on 14 October 2016 to negative reviews.[3] Plot Sunaina announces at their company stage programme that Daniel is the man behind her success. At the programme reception area, businessman father and son Raj meet Sunaina and walk out of the area. At home, Raj's father sits in anger and tells his son to let him be alone. Son-in-law Naresh tells Raj that he is the cause for the business loss their father is facing now. Raj now goes to Sunaina's house angry where security men try to stop Raj. Sunaina tells him she still loves Raj. Raj says that now it's late and leaves the house. Sunaina watches Raj leaving. Scene shifts back to a night pub. Sunaina comes to attend her friend Natasha's birthday party. Raj, who is fully drunk tries to embrace Sunaina, who refuses him, but Raj tries to hug Sunaina again. Now Sunaina slaps Raj on his face. Raj, who is full of anger tells Naresh that he will take revenge and wants to find out what about that girl. Finally, Sunaina is seen coming out of the office by Raj, who now realizes that she is working in their company. Now Raj bets Naresh he will be his slave if he cannot act as lover and then later betray Sunaina. Raj acts like a changed man and hard working for the company in front of Sunaina. Finally, Sunaina falls in love with Raj. The day comes where Raj lies with Sunaina in his house and Raj father finds out their love and tries to arrange for their marriage. Raj wanted to cheat Sunaina, but as his father and grandmother are now ready for their marriage, Raj agrees for marriage. On the marriage day, Sunaina's mother is found out by Raj father's friend as a prostitute, Raj father tells him to stop the marriage, now Raj confesses he wanted to reject her after acting as a lover. Hearing this, Sunaina becomes very angry and leaves with her mother away from the marriage area. Her mother commits suicide. Sunaina, now fully sad gets support from Daniel. Sunaina becomes a successful businesswoman shown as getting a Canadian company business deal overcoming Raj's father's business deal with the company. Raj's father tries to arrange a marriage between Raj and his business cum alcohol drinking friend's daughter. But after a party Raj finds the daughter to be a senseless and shameless lady trying to have body contact dance with another guy. Finally, Raj realises Sunaina was a good girl and comes back to Sunaina's house and again start love with Sunaina. Here, Sunaina acts as loving, but finally one day Sunaina tells him she hates him. Cast Sunny Leone as Sunaina Verma Rajneesh Duggal as Raj Malhotra Daniel Weber Ziesha Nancy Release Beimaan Love released on 14 October 2016. The film was not promoted by Sunny and her husband Daniel Weber and Chaudhari claims that it was because he refused to chop off her intimate scenes in the film. "The duo is going through a psychological fear and box-office phobia. Sunny's previous outings have not fared well. After seeing the rough cut, they wanted me to chop off intimate scenes between the actress and Rajneesh. Daniel claimed that he had contributed his bit by revamping Sunny's films on the editing table. But I did not like his interference and requested them to avoid doing so. I think they got upset with my decision." Chaudhari told Mid-Day.[4] Critical reception Times of India rated the film 2 stars and said, "If you are hankering for a Sunny Leone performance this weekend hop on to Baby Doll on Youtube and call it a day," and for Leone's performance, "Sunny Leone gets A for effort, because her struggle to rise up the content is evident"[5] Filmfare rated the film 2 stars and said "There are two good things about the film, one's Sunny Leone and the other is the film's music. Rest of the movie is jaded, overtly sentimental." [6] IBTimes rated the film 2 stars with appreciating Leone's performance and said, "Watch this Sunny Leone movie if your love for yourself is beimaan." [7] BollywoodLife rated the film 1 star and said, "Sunny Leone gives her best shot to keep this bad piece of cinema together and the film is not worth your time"[8] Hindustan Times gave 0 stars to the film and said, "Beimaan Love is a master-class in anger management. You sit through it and the world will be at your feet." [9] India.com rated the film 2 stars and said, "It is silly to watch a Sunny Leone film and expect the seductress to act in it! Well, she can fake a thing or two (no, we are not hinting at her colorful portfolio). But you have to be honest with yourself as indeed with the faith of the filmmakers who cast Sunny in their movies." [10] The Indian Express said, "This is a cringe-fest from start to finish. Stay away. And wave bye bye to Sunny: when a film sinks this low, it's hard to climb back up again." [11] Box Office India said, "While the film has the gusto to hold the plot together, it fails on implementation. It lacks punch and is mediocre fare." [12] Reporter Times rated the film 2.5 stars and said, "The film had featured a great set of comic scenes and connects to target audience very well. But it's not a film for every type of audience, you can watch the movie for time-pass but don't expect much from it. Sunny is not yet complete actress for Bollywood films but she is improving very well. Overall it's the best film by Sunny Leone so far." Little does he know that the sex bet will leave him ravaged. Review: Horny men who are jilted at the bedroom door seem to be the flavour of the season. When dealt with correctly, you get a delicious film like Pink. When not, you get the bland Beimaan Love. Here, Raj Malhotra (Rajneesh Duggal) spots Sunaina (Sunny Leone) at a party, leaps at her like a drooling cartoon wolf, and starts kissing her neck without consent and/or warning. Obviously, she slaps him across the face, thus initiating a series of bets, crosses, double crosses and affairs between employees and bosses. He tricks her into bed, she gets her heart broken, plots revenge, destroys his business, it's all pretty standard Hindi-movie stuff. Abbas Mustan would have made a great thriller out of it in the '90s. But it is not the '90s. We deserve better tropes than the hero heroically rescuing the heroine's purse from goons. Who-blinks-first games on dates, effeminate men as prop-characters, "oriental" background music when Chinese characters are on screen and a mother with a melodramatic secret. All that was missing was a laugh track in the background. The characters are inconsistent, the lines are handpicked from a Dialogue For Dummies guide and there's a general lack of attention to detail. Props from one scene show up everywhere; the same location is used as different places, and the film opens with a promotional song (!) which plays by itself without titles. Are we watching a movie, or a music channel? Sunny Leone gets A for effort, because her struggle to rise above the content is evident. Rajneesh and the other members of the cast (also from the 90s) are jaywalking around her. If you are hankering for a Sunny Leone performance this weekend, hop on to Baby Doll on YouTube and call it a day.
